

PHOTO CONTEST REAS 2023

SECONDA EDIZIONE

REAS PHOTO CONTEST “Photograph the emergency safely” From 1 May to 4 September 2022

SECOND EDITION

“Emergency: the value of team work”

THE COMPETITION

The competition "Photo contest REAS – Fotografa l'emergenza in sicurezza", promoted by CENTRO FIERA S.p.A. as part of REAS exhibition, in collaboration with Photogek Fenaroli atelier, intends to raise awareness and dissemination of the theme of the emergency, selecting photographs capable of effectively describing the voluntary activity and the context in which groups and associations involved in emergency management operate.

After the excellent results of the debut edition, the 2023 edition of the REAS Photo contest is proposed with the following theme: "Emergency: the value of teamwork".

PROPOSER SUBJECTS AND METHOD OF PARTICIPATION

- Participation in the competition is free and open to all volunteers in the emergency sector aged 18 and over.
- It is possible to participate individually or in associated form.
- In the case of participation in associated form, at least three quarters of the group members must fall within the expected age range (18 years and up); each group must indicate a representative who will be the contact person for communications by the organization.
- Unpublished photos taken with any technique, recording tool and narrative type are admitted to the competition.
- Photos must feature original, non-copyrighted content.
- For photos depicting identifiable faces (close-ups or recognizable people in general), the release is required. In the case of minors, the release must be signed by both parents.
- In the event that the images refer to facts, events, ceremonies of public interest, it is also possible not to request the release from the subjects shot only if the shots are general panoramas and do not dwell on one or more specific persons.

SECONDA EDIZIONE

GIURIA E FASI

Centro Fiera S.p.A. will appoint a Technical Jury composed of professionals from the cultural / photographic sector who will have the task of evaluating the photographs received, selecting those capable of capturing the spirit and passion of those who work in emergency management in the most authentic way, as well as to effectively interpret the theme of the 2023 edition ("Emergency: the value of teamwork")..

Photographs in which defenseless bodies or in any case non-respectful of human dignity are portrayed will not be taken into consideration. The Jury will draw up a ranking and decide the works that will take part in the final phase. The author / author or authors of the finalist photographs will be contacted by e-mail or telephone and the names will be published on the website www.reasonline.it.

If the Technical Jury deems that none of the works presented are worthy of an award, they can limit themselves to reporting through their own means of communication.

In September 2023, the finalists will be announced through the website and the official social media channels of REAS upon the unquestionable decision of the Technical Jury. At this stage, voting will also be open to the Web-Social Jury, made up of all / and those who wish to express their preference. The Web-Social Jury will be asked to cast its vote according to the methods indicated in the appropriate section of the website www.reasonline.it, in the 10 days following the nomination of the finalists by the Technical Jury (September 2023) .

The weight on the final vote by the Web-Social Jury will be 10% (twenty percent). The decisions of the jury, unappealable, will be made public on the day of the award ceremony.

TO THE WINNING WORK

The award ceremony will take place on Sunday 8 October 2023 as part of REAS.

The winning work will be included in the promotional materials of REAS and will accompany the dissemination activities that the project dedicates to the world of emergency volunteering, carried out in collaboration with organizations, institutions and companies in the sector.

The first 3 classified will be recognized as absolute winners of the first edition of the "Photo contest REAS – Fotografare l'emergenza in sicurezza".

A selection of the best photographs will be included in the exhibition set up on the occasion of REAS on 6-7-8 October 2023 and in the gallery dedicated to the contest published on www.reasonline.it and in the institutional social channels of the project .
